

February 27, 2006

Question: Holy Spirit, in the interpretation of Acts, Chapter 8, you spoke of a storm of rage, anger, hurt, fear and guilt. As we observe this storm as it seems to come up, what are we to do? How can we take advantage of the situation to truly forgive and clear the mind?

Answer: Love must be the reason for all things. Love is the desire to share your healing with your brother. Love is the desire to be at peace in all things for everyone.

Remain focused on Love, even as you see judgments, fear, guilt, anger, confusion and hurt in your mind. Know that the plan of Love is to let go of every thought that seems to separate you from your brother. As you willingly let these thoughts go from your mind for the purpose of Love, joining occurs within the mind. This joining is healing. You will know when you are healed, because you will love your brother with your whole heart, your whole soul and your whole mind. No thought will be split off from that Love. All splinters will be healed. You will know only the oneness of Love without division.

March 1, 2006

Question: Holy Spirit, what would you share with me today?

Answer: Your sight was made by the ego that you would see what the ego wished to see. Rejoice, for this is the freedom of God in action. And rejoice again, for the freedom of God offers another choice.

The way out of seeing what you see is to stop believing in it. When you stop believing in it, it must fade. Then you will see all that is beyond what you see, and you will know that is Truth. That is the Sight that serves as the bridge to Heaven, for it brings Heaven within reach even within the dream. And there, from that place of mind, you will give your willingness to awaken.

Continue to forgive all perceptions of attack. Transfer of training to all circumstances is helpful now. Let nothing be separate from your desire to see [with the Sight of the Holy Spirit.]