

February 12, 2007

Question: What does it mean to see all events as “wholly without meaning” while we seem to be living in a world where decisions seem to need to be made. Please guide me.

Answer: Yes, as long as your perception is that of living in a world, you will seem to need to make decisions. You cannot escape this, because the world has some reality or meaning for you as long as you seem to be in a world.

To see all events as wholly meaningless is a recognition that any meaning that is given comes from you. It does not mean that you will see no meaning. When you recognize that all meaning comes from you, you can question and change the meaning you are giving. In this way, no meaning is static. In this way, the purpose of every situation comes from you.

In choosing meaning consciously, you come to recognize that you are the dreamer of the dream. In choosing meaning consciously, you determine the dream experience you would have. In choosing the dream experience, you free yourself from the slavery of the dream. In freeing yourself, you recognize freedom, and love is hidden from your sight no more.

You are the dreamer of the dream. It literally has no meaning except the meaning you are giving it. Choose your meaning consciously, and behold!, as you awaken from the dream.