

MIDLAND VOLLEYBALL

2025 POSTSEASON MEDIA GUIDE

ABOUT THE WARRIORS

JOURNEY TO THE TOURNEY

Midland is making its 12th appearance at the final site of the NAIA Women's Volleyball National Championship in the last 13 seasons. The Warriors earned an at-large bid out of the Great Plains Athletic Conference after finishing third in the regular season and advancing to the postseason semifinals. Midland secured its return to Sioux City with a sweep of Grand View University (25-20, 25-20, 25-17) on Nov. 22 in Fremont.

THE 'PAC IS WHERE IT'S AT

The Great Plains Athletic Conference continues to be one of the strongest volleyball leagues in the NAIA, sending four teams to Sioux City: Midland, Northwestern, Concordia and Dakota Wesleyan. Competition was fierce throughout the season, with six teams finishing .500 or better. Northwestern swept the regular-season and postseason titles, Concordia took second in both, Midland placed third at 12-4, and Dakota Wesleyan finished fourth at 10-6. Dordt (10-6) and College of Saint Mary (8-8) narrowly missed national bids despite strong resumes.

IRON SHARPENS IRON

Midland challenged itself with one of the toughest nonconference schedules in the country, finishing the regular season with the NAIA's top-rated strength of schedule. The Warriors played 14 matches against ranked or receiving-votes opponents, going 6-8, and have already faced eight of the 24 teams competing in Sioux City. They also battled Viterbo and Bethel, two programs that reached the NAIA Opening Round this fall.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

The Warriors feature a young, dynamic roster with 13 underclassmen among their 20 postseason players—eight freshmen and five sophomores. Leading the group are All-GPAC First Team standouts Brooklynn Snyder and Abree Plueger. Snyder, a two-time first team selection, was the 2024 GPAC Freshman of the Year, while Plueger was the league's only freshman named to the first team and narrowly missed earning Freshman of the Year honors herself.

GPAC HONOREES

Along with first-teamers Snyder and Plueger, Midland placed sophomore Lauren Jones and junior Brena Mackling on the All-GPAC Second Team. Senior Cameran Jansky and junior Claire Johnson earned honorable mention recognition, with Jansky receiving the honor for the second consecutive season.

TOURNAMENT SUCCESS

Midland has built a tradition of postseason excellence, advancing to the NAIA national semifinals four times (2016, 2018, 2020, 2022) and reaching the championship match in 2020 under longtime head coach Paul Giesselmann. Giesselmann retired following the 2024 season, turning leadership over to first-year head coach Micah Rhodes after his two seasons as an assistant.

HOMEGROWN TALENT

The Warriors' roster reflects the strength of Midwest volleyball, with 20 of the program's 27 student-athletes hailing from Nebraska. The remaining players include five from Iowa, one from Kansas and one from South Dakota.

ABOUT THE WARRIORS

HOME COOKING

Midland has been a force at the Wikert Event Center, compiling a 65-14 record at home since 2020 and going 10-2 at home this season. Under Giesselmann, the Warriors posted a dominant 137-42 home record with 30 wins over ranked opponents—one of the best marks in college volleyball. First-year head coach Micah Rhodes built on that legacy this season with home wins over York, Grand View (twice), Mount Marty, Doane, Dakota Wesleyan, Waldorf, the College of Saint Mary (twice) and Hastings, with only No. 3 Northwestern and No. 4 Concordia earning wins in Fremont.

SIoux CITY SUCCESS

Midland has historically performed well at the final site, advancing out of pool play eight times in its 11 previous appearances and compiling an 18-10 (.643) pool-play record. The Warriors have won at least one match in bracket play six times, with their run to the national title match in 2020 marking the program's deepest postseason push.

AWARDS & HONORS

- 2024 GPAC Assistant Coach of the Year
- 2021 AVCA North Central Region Asst. Coach of the Year
- 2021 North Star Assistant Coach of the Year

Micah Rhodes was named head coach of Midland University volleyball in February 2025 following the retirement of longtime head coach Paul Giesselmann. He originally joined the Warriors' staff ahead of the 2023 season as a volunteer assistant and was promoted to full-time assistant after one year. That season, he helped Midland to a top-four finish in the Great Plains Athletic Conference (GPAC) and a quarterfinal appearance at the NAIA National Tournament, working primarily with the team's offense and blocking. The Warriors ranked second nationally in blocks per set (2.99) in 2023.

Rhodes coached several players to postseason honors, including Abbey Ringler, who earned First Team All-GPAC and All-West Central Region recognition, as well as AVCA honorable mention All-America honors. Right-side hitter Jacki Apel was named Second Team All-GPAC, while Lauren Williams and Lauryn Samuelson received honorable mention accolades. Samuelson ranked fourth nationally in blocks per set.

Prior to Midland, Rhodes spent three seasons at Bellevue University as recruiting coordinator and assistant coach, where the Bruins finished ninth nationally in blocks per set in 2022. He was named AVCA North Central Region Assistant Coach of the Year in 2021 after helping Bellevue to its first NAIA Final 8 appearance since 2000. That same year, he was also named NSAA Assistant Coach of the Year. Several Bellevue players earned All-Region and All-America honors under his guidance, including Apel, Nicole Meyer, Haley Fleischman, and Coree Lipovsky.

Rhodes previously served as director of operations at Creighton in 2019 and as an assistant coach at Nebraska Omaha from 2017–18, where he was the offensive and blocking coordinator. At UNO, he helped the Mavericks to a Division I program-best .221 hitting percentage in 2018 and led the Summit League in blocks per set during conference play in 2017. He also coached multiple Summit League award winners, including Isabella Sade and Anna Blaschko.

He began his college coaching career at Buena Vista University (2012–16), where he helped develop multiple All-Conference, All-Region, and All-America performers, and served as interim head coach for much of the 2015 season. Rhodes has also been active at the club level, coaching for Premier Volleyball Club in Omaha.

A native of Grand Island, Nebraska, Rhodes got his start as a student manager with the Nebraska Cornhuskers from 2008–11. He was a four-year member and three-year starting outside hitter for the Huskers' men's club volleyball team, helping them to three NIRSA Sweet 16 appearances. He earned his bachelor's degree in journalism, with a major in advertising and public relations, from the University of Nebraska–Lincoln in 2011.

ASSISTANT COACHES

LINDSEY SMITH - 1ST SEASON

Lindsey Smith joined Midland volleyball as an assistant coach in spring 2025. She previously served in coaching and administrative roles at the University of Denver, Morningside University, College of Saint Mary, and several youth clubs across California, South Dakota, and Nebraska.

A standout setter at the University of Nebraska at Kearney, Smith earned AVCA All-America honors in 2016 and finished her career with nearly 5,000 assists. She also played beach volleyball as a graduate student at Southern Miss. A native of Dakota Dunes, South Dakota, she holds degrees from UNK and the University of Southern Mississippi.

NATE MONGAN - 16TH SEASON

Nate Mongan has been an assistant coach with Midland volleyball since 2009 and also coaches for Premier Volleyball Club in Omaha. Since 2005, his club teams have qualified for the Junior Olympic National Championships annually, including a fifth-place finish in 2015. He previously led Mead High School to back-to-back Class D1 state semifinal appearances in 2006 and 2007.

Mongan lives in Mead with his wife, Sarah, and their two sons. He works as a claims manager for The Hartford, while Sarah is a veterinarian in Omaha.

Tie Break Procedures

The following procedure is to be used only to determine place in pool play and cannot eliminate a team from competition:

1. Overall match record
2. Percentage of sets won of those played among tied teams (total sets won/total sets played)
3. Head-to-head competition if 1 & 2 are tied after sets won
4. Percentage of points won in matches played among tied teams (total points won/total points played)
5. Head to head competition if 1 & 2 are tied after points won

Two-Way Ties – A two-way tie cannot exist in a three-team pool play.

Three-Way Ties – This is the only possible tie-breaking scenario in a three-team pool. In this case, the tied teams in the pool will play a single set to 25 points (win by 2 points; no cap) to determine who the winner of the pool and advance to the semifinals. The team judged to be superior by the procedure listed above will earn the first bye in the pool playoff. The other two teams shall play one set to 25 points (win by two points; no cap) and the winner will play the bye team one set to 25 points (win by two points; no cap) – For a total of two 25-point sets. Only one team will advance out of pool play.
