

Mr. Nobody
Movie Playsheet

1. If you were to rename this movie from a spiritual or Truth perspective, what name would you give it?

2. In what ways, if any, were you able to identify with Nemo Nobody?

3. Was there another character in the movie with whom you identified?

4. Was there a character in the movie who might represent the Holy Spirit? If so, what characteristics does this Holy Spirit character exhibit?

5. What does the movie indicate about choices?

6. Do the characters seem to be choosing their destinies or does it seem they have no control over their future?

7. What does the movie reveal about time?

8. What does the quote "As long as you don't choose, everything remains possible" mean from a spiritual/Truth perspective?

9. What will you take away from this movie?