

HOWe THINGS ARE...

June 2002

Hello. For people who keep wishing I would include pictures... Here are some of North Carolina...

Downtown Waxhaw... This is our traffic light – we just only have the one...source: www.waxhaw.com...

where I live and work...

My cool driveway (from the road)... notice how you can't see the house from the road... I love that feature...

And some of NC people...

With friends in NC... These people live in the Waxhaw area, where I live. Almost all of them got to spend the last month listening to me complain about my foot*...

With work people... the people I see every day so these people got to hear daily updates on my hurt foot saga...

With my Bible Study (people from church)... They live in Charlotte (where my church is). They live kind of far away so they were mostly spared listening to me whine about my foot, but they came to Waxhaw so I wouldn't have to drive to Charlotte with my hurt foot.

*foot recap: tripped, tore something, had busted foot for a month...
