Subject: Travel plans for me...

Hi! I'm writing to let you know travel dates for me.

- I'm leaving Thursday for Ethiopia. I'll be there three weeks, returning June 5. If you think to pray for the whole traveling deal --- I'm in transit May 12 - 13 and again June 3 - 5.

- I'm way excited about this trip: (1) because of the whole travel/adventure/new, cool place aspect and (2) I'm excited to work on the project I'm doing.
I've had a fun time preparing... It would be great if it went really well (pray that first). However, even if it doesn't go really well, I'm pretty confident it'll be better after I leave than it is now...

- If things go well, I'll have email shortly after I arrive (and time to write and let you know I arrived).
It'll be 1997 there (they have a different calendar --- different way of counting years and also, there are 13 months). It's practically like time travel...
