Hi!

- May 2006

- A Wycliffe preschool teacher I know printed prayer cards: a picture of her with her entire preschool class --- a "Where is Waldo?" effect. I like this idea except I don't have a preschool class. But I do have a team (see front).
- Notice how I'm the only girl. And this is just my team. There are maybe 30 people in my group --- all men except me. They're nice and all but I'm pretty sure this should lead us to pray for God to call not just MORE workers for the harvest, more women who have computer skills... for balance I say...
- A way cool practical miracle to tell you about: I don't have to move, the new owners are happy to have renters, have the renters be us and not raise our rent. Thanks for praying!
