I have 10 hours between flights to be a tourist. A nice break between two long flights. And my first time to Paris.

Meeting as a consultant with tech colleagues in Siliguri, India who are developing an app to integrate with Bible translation software to make managing Bible translation projects easier. Siliguri is at the foothills of the Himalayas.

*Around the world? Maybe. Corona virus concerns could change plans. Each of the three events involved significant planning and coordination. But in light of world situation, holding travel plans lightly.

Pray for health and safety. It's a lot of flights and time zones. Pray for energy.

Pray for good connections with colleagues and partners.

Praise for the opportunity to interact in person with so many global workers who share a commitment to seeing lives transformed as communities encounter the living Word of God.
