

Check out Wycliffe's Year in Review

"At the beginning of 2020, no one could have imagined what would happen in our world. But God knew. And he was already working not just in Wycliffe, but within global communities to bring his hope and truth in the midst of challenging circumstances."

Check out Wycliffe's year in review video and join me in celebrating what God did in 2020!

Praise:

- Translation work accomplished in 2020, including the first full Bible sign language translation! (American Sign Language - ASL)
- The IT people God is calling to his global mission
- The incredible generosity of so many in 2020, making the work of Bible translation possible, including making my ministry with Wycliffe possible.

♥ Marriage

Feb 20, 2021 is our wedding date. Scott Nelson and I will start our life together in a small immediate family ceremony in Mooresville, North Carolina.

🏠 Moving

After the wedding, we will move to the metro Atlanta area where I'll be doing the same job, just from a different house. I've been working from home since March so not a big work change ...I hope. Scott's also in the same boat: working from home since March, will be doing the same job, different house.

Why Atlanta? It's closer to family for both of us and it's our compromise location. Before we started dating, Scott was planning to move to Dallas, TX where he's from and his ideal location. I planned to stay in NC because it's ideal for my work and because I like it. So we picked Georgia so no one's happy 😊. Not really. We both really like the part of Georgia where we've been looking at houses.

🌸 March

After the wedding... and moving... and we're kind of "settled" (that's how I think this will go down - "settled by March"), I plan to send an update with wedding pictures and our new address.
