

Thought pictures might be nice...

- I'm pretty excited about the 1,000th New Testament. I got a picture with a copy while I was in Dallas to talk with our board about technology in missions.
- I had much fun creating a visual explaining some of what IT does. My team wanted to know why they're pictured with very large heads compared to their tiny bodies.
- Our IT leadership team met in Waxhaw (in person except for two of us). It never ceases to amaze me how much you can accomplish when you're physically together as opposed to our usual virtual meetings.
- Speaking of physically together, it doesn't happen often because virtual meetings are a lot cheaper than airline tickets, but I thoroughly enjoyed meeting with colleagues from all over the world in person in Bangkok. Global meetings are simultaneously translated into Spanish and French so I don't have a common language with everyone (why did I not pay more attention in High School French?).
